Mr Kormos: Point of order, Chair: I appreciate when you call for the ayes you say, "In favour say 'aye,'" and then I appreciate that you wait for the response of those who are supporting it and then rather than saying "opposed say 'nay,'" you simply say "opposed 'nay.'"

The Acting Chair: What I'm saying is, "In favour: say 'aye,'" and then the other part is "opposed: 'nay'"; so I'm saying, "In favour say 'aye,'" and I've already said "say," so it's "opposed 'nay.'"

Mr Kormos: If there were to be balance and symmetry, what would you say, "opposed say 'nay'" if you say, "In favour say 'aye'"?

The Acting Chair: As usual, if that would be agreeable to you, I have absolutely no problem saying it.

Mr Kormos: I would appreciate it, Chair.

Interjections.

CITY OF TORONTO ACT, 1996 LOI DE 1996 SUR LA CITÉ DE TORONTO

Continuing consideration of Bill 103, An Act to replace the seven existing municipal governments of Metropolitan Toronto by incorporating a new municipality to be known as the City of Toronto / Projet de loi 103, Loi visant à remplacer les sept administrations municipales existantes de la communauté urbaine de Toronto en constituant une nouvelle municipalité appelée la cité de Toronto.

The Acting Chair (Mr Doug Galt): Would members please take their seats — your real seat.

Would the clerk please do a count.

Clerk Assistant (Ms Deborah Deller): Chair, there are 31 members of the government party; there are five members of the official opposition; there are two members of the third party.

The Acting Chair: Is that agreed by the government House leader?

Hon David Johnson (Chair of the Management Board of Cabinet, Government House Leader): Agreed.

The Acting Chair: Does the member for Essex South agree with those numbers?

Mr Bruce Crozier (Essex South): Agreed.

The Acting Chair: The member for Beaches-Woodbine?

Ms Frances Lankin (Beaches-Woodbine): Let me check. Yes.

The Acting Chair: You're very quick at that lengthy count. Thank you very much.

We have an NDP motion, subsection 24(4): Newlove Court.

Those in favour say "aye." Those opposed say "nay."

Clerk Assistant: The ayes are 7; the nays 31.

The Acting Chair: The vote is lost.

Mr Frank Klees (York-Mackenzie): Point of order, Mr Chair: As it's customary typically to recognize former members of the Legislature in this place, this evening I'd like us to recognize the honourable member for Brantford, Mr Ron Johnson.

The Acting Chair: That wasn't a point of order.

Newman Avenue. Those in favour say "aye." Those opposed please say "nay."

Clerk Assistant: The ayes are 7; the nays are 31.

Failure of sound system.

Mr Richard Patten (Ottawa Centre): — I don't know if you're alternating between motions. Could you read the source of the motion, please.

The Acting Chair: We're to the ones which are the heritage Liberal motions. Can we read just the identification like Brooklawn Avenue or just the number? Would that be adequate or is it necessary to read the whole thing?

Mr Bruce Crozier (Essex South): The same as you've always done.

The Acting Chair: On each and every amendment you want the whole —

Mr Crozier: I'm surprised you're asking.

The Acting Chair: I just thought you might want to shorten it up and get home a little earlier.

Mr Howard Hampton (Rainy River): On a point of order, Chair: I wonder if before we enter into these amendments you can go back to the vote on section 24, as amended, and tell me the result of that vote.

The Acting Chair: Section 24, as amended, was lost.

We have a Liberal motion, 29.1:

The Second Deputy Chair: Yes, I certainly can. I thought the fellow beside you asked me to pick it up.

Mr Silipo: Yes, but he doesn't speak for us on this one.

The Second Deputy Chair: I'll try to meet a happy medium.

Mrs Lyn McLeod (Fort William): Mr Chairman, can I ask, has it also been past practice for the person who was in the Chair immediately before you resumed it to just say "Liberal amendment number"?

The Second Deputy Chair: If I come to any other ones I could say what else they were, or do you want me to say "Liberal" as well?

Mrs McLeod: I think the ones before you now are Liberal amendments, and just to identify them as such.

The Second Deputy Chair: You'd like each one identified as being Liberal?

Mrs McLeod: I believe that's been the practice of previous Chairs.

The Second Deputy Chair: I see. I didn't think I needed that practice but if you want it, I'll give it.
